New Ownership For Volkswagen

Lynchburg, Va. – James F. Sharp and W. Ross Nichols announced recently that they have purchased Nash Volkswagen, Inc., at 2828 Candlers Mountain Road. The company was founded in 1964 by the late E. L. Nash.

President of the firm is James F. Sharp, a veteran Volkswagen executive. Sharp, a native of Stanley, Wisconsin, graduated from the University of Wisconsin where he majored in business administration. He later served as an Army Air Force navigator during World War II.

W. Ross Nichols, a partner in the business, is a native of Gladys, Va., where he attended school. In 1953, he joined the maritime service.

Nichols has served as sales manager and later general manager of the business.

The new owners invite the public to join them in a "Meet the Management" event Saturday, Nov. 7, from 8:30 until 6:00 p.m. The 1971 VW product line will be on display.

HOW TO FIND SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Ernest Farrar of Evergreen grows long handled gourds which he dries and makes into dippers and unusual lamps. On Monday he found a new customer – Mrs. Mary Turner of Spring Mills Museum. She has a clear, cool spring on the Mill property, but her drinking gourd had recently split nearly in two. Now she once again has an authentic piece of Americana to show visitors – an old fashioned drinking gourd with a handle almost two feet long.

Transco Applies For Loop

Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation has filed an application with the Federal Power Commission to loop a portion of its Southeast Louisiana Lateral and add more horsepower to receive additional supplies of natural gas.

The gas will be available from currently authorized sources.

Transco proposes to build and operate about 35 miles of 30-inch loop-line and 5,500 additional horsepower at an existing compressor station near Houma, La.

The facilities, estimated to cost $13,430,000, will be financed initially through short-term loans and available cash. Long-term financing will be undertaken as part of an overall program at a later date.

Construction is proposed for early 1971.

In its application, Transco certified that it would design, install, inspect, test, construct, operate, replace, and maintain the pipeline facilities in accordance with all applicable safety standards.

HD Clubs Plan Achievement Day

Wednesday, Nov. 18 will be "Achievement Day" for all Home Demonstration Clubs of Appomattox County. The business session will begin at 10:30 a.m. at the Woodman of the World Bldg. and will be followed by a covered dish luncheon, recreation and a guest speaker, Mrs. J. W. Bruner, chairman of District III Federation of HD Clubs. The program will end at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Bruner will be speaking on woman's role in the world today, pros and cons of Women's Liberation Movement and the role of the Christian home.

Club exhibits will include handwork, handicraft, etc. and stationery, recipe cards and recipe books will be on sale. "The Virginia Cookbook", a state HD project will also be on sale.
